

SAY HELLO TO EXPRESS SERVICE!

San Mateo
County
Libraries

Dear Community,

Did you hear the exciting news? Beginning Thursday, April 22, you're invited to visit all of our San Mateo County Libraries communities to browse our shelves, access our Wi-Fi, and use our computers and printers. We're so excited to welcome you back inside — we will be smiling through our masks!

Express Service, which includes modified in-library services, will be available Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays from 10:00 AM to 1:00 PM and 2:00 PM to 5:00 PM at most of our libraries. For more information about modified services, safety guidelines, and locations, visit smcl.org/express. Curbside Services will continue to be available at all locations with new hours of operations. Beginning Monday, April 19 at most locations, Curbside Services hours will move to Mondays, Tuesdays, and Wednesdays from 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM. For updated locations and hours, visit smcl.org/curbside.

We can't wait to welcome you back to explore with us! Just a reminder, book donations are on hold and Friends of the Library book sales will be returning soon. We hope to see you inside our libraries next week.

Considering Our Classics

While classic stories bring us a sense of comfort and nostalgia, recent conversations about Dr. Seuss and Dav Pilkey remind us to think critically about whether the books we share with our children perpetuate harmful stereotypes. With so many amazing new books that feature and celebrate diversity, we put together a list of a few of our favorites that we hope will become cherished classics for generations to come!

Community Picks

Our Community Picks' titles are available digitally through online resources or in print through Curbside Services.

Children's Fiction: This Is Not My Hat by Jon Klassen

The sequel to the classic picture book I Want My Hat Back, the mad-CAP adventures of these animal characters and their headwear are funny for kids but also a delight for grown-ups who love irony and subtle visual gags.

Gabriela, Millbrae Library

Young Adult Nonfiction: True Or False by Cindy L. Otis

Fake news has been around a lot longer than the past decade. Former CIA analyst Cindy Otis gives us a scandalous history of propaganda across the globe and shares real-world methods that the CIA uses to identify false intel online and in the news. Available as an eAudiobook on hoopla.

Deidre, San Carlos Library

Adult Nonfiction: Hood Feminism by Mikki Kendall

A must-read. This book addresses overlooked issues that affect women of color and discusses how race and class divides women. Drawing on her own experiences, author Mikki Kendall's debut essay collection reveals the need for a more inclusive, intersectional feminism.

Elena, Brisbane Library

Children's Fiction: The 1,000 Year Old Boy by Ross Welford

What do you think it is like to be 11 years old for 1,000 years? After a millennium of childhood, Alve is ready to grow up! He enlists the help of his friends Roxy and Aidan to help him find the last life pearl to reverse the process. A fun and quick-paced read for Grades 5-7.

Angela, Pacifica Libraries

Movie Streaming: Antonia's Line

Winner of the Academy Award for Best Foreign Language Film in 1995, Antonia's Line is the story of a woman who creates a happy and meaningful life, for herself and others, in postwar Europe. Antonia is the quiet center of a chosen community. When things are terrible outside, Antonia's Line is a reminder that everything can be all right. Available on Kanopy.

Nicole, San Mateo County Libraries
