Dear Community,

We're excited to welcome author Amanda Jayatissa on Thursday, July 14, at 7:00 PM. Jayatissa will discuss her debut book My Sweet Girl, a wickedly dark thriller set in Sri Lanka and San Francisco.

It follows Paloma Evans, whose childhood starts in a Sri Lankan orphanage. Once she was adopted and made it to America, Paloma expected her perfect life to begin. Now 30 years old and living in San Francisco, Paloma finds her past is catching up to her. When she sublets the spare bedroom of her apartment to a man named Arun, he discovers Paloma's darkest secret. Before she can pay him off, she finds him dead. By the time the police arrive, there's no body—and no evidence that Arun ever even existed in the first place. Paloma is left to wonder—did her secret die with Arun or is she now in even more danger than before?

Jayatissa is one of the first Sri Lankan women to secure an international book deal. My Sweet Girl was a Most Anticipated Novel of Fall 2021 by Entertainment Weekly, NPR, The Boston Globe, Goodreads and more. Author Samantha Downing (My Lovely Wife) says "this is a story about friendship, lies, and guilt," calling the book "a stunning and original must-read!"

Children's Fiction: Cattywampus by Ash Van Otterloo

Cattywampus is a coming-of-age story following two teenage witches, Katybird Hearn and Delpha McGill, who have to keep their powers a secret outside of their families. Delpha must learn to practice witchcraft on her own since it is forbidden by her mother, and Katybird is unsure if she will ever develop magical abilities. Things go awry when these two novice witches start practicing witchcraft on their own. Follow along as things unravel, and they confront animated sheds, ghosts and zombies!

Irma Ramos Arreaga, North Fair Oaks Library

Young Adult Fiction: The Year I Stopped Trying by Katie Heaney

Mary, an excellent student who is never in trouble, doesn't turn in a school assignment... and nothing happens. So she does it again, and still nothing happens. Mary begins to wonder why she has been working so hard and following the rules all this time, and what will happen if she just stops trying?

Amy Selmi, Atherton Library

Adult Fiction: Interior Chinatown by Charles Yu

Imagine your life as a television show. This novel by Charles Yu does exactly that. He cleverly crafts a story that seamlessly weaves between script and reality, leaving the reader wondering which is which. The protagonist is Willis Wu, an Asian American who questions when Asians will become and be recognized as Americans. This story explores the racial structure of the United States and especially the Chinese American experience.
