

Games and Puzzles Frequently Asked Questions

What games and puzzles are available to borrow?

As part of SMCL's InLuck collection, we have games and puzzles available for all ages and difficulty levels. Please note that some of the games and puzzles listed below may not be available at your nearest SMCL branch. We will continually add games and puzzles to our collection.

- Board Games
 - Wingspan
 - Codenames
 - Settlers of Catan
 - Ticket to Ride
 - Mysterium
 - Checkers
 - Sorry!
 - Life
 - Monopoly
 - Chutes and Ladders
 - Yahtzee
 - Scrabble
 - Mahjong
 - Terraforming Mars
 - Azul
 - Richard Scarry's Busytown
 - Pete the Cat Groovy Buttons
 - Bananagrams
 - Carcassone
- Card Games
 - UNO
 - Taco Cat Goat Cheese Pizza
 - Exploding Kittens
 - Monopoly Deal
 - Cards Against Humanity
 - Anomia

- Puzzles
 - Circular Ocean
 - LEGO
 - Book Club
 - Plant Shelfie
 - Cool Cats
 - Solar System
 - Dinosaurs
 - Dog School Bus
 - USA Map
 - Bookstore Dog
 - Beach
 - Hot Air Balloons

Who can check out a game or puzzle?

Games and puzzles can be checked out by anyone with a Peninsula Library System library card. Sign up for a library card here: <https://smcl.org/card-services/get-a-card/>.

How do I check out a game or puzzle?

You may check out a game or puzzle like you would any book. Visit the front desk or a self-checkout machine to check out a game or puzzle.

How long can I check out a game or puzzle?

At this time, you can check out a board game, card game, or puzzle for 1 week (7 days).

Are they renewable?

At this time, games and puzzles are not renewable.

Can I put a game or puzzle on hold?

At this time, games and puzzles are available on a first come, first served basis.

Where do I return a game or puzzle?

Please return your game or puzzle to any Peninsula Library System library at the front desk or using the book drop.

Will the game have instructions?

All games include instructions in English.

Are there instructions available in languages other than English?

Instructions in languages other than English are available online and provided by the game's publisher. Please ask a library staff member for assistance.

What happens if I lose a piece?

If you lose a piece, please notify a library staff member when returning the game or puzzle.